

CASE PRESENTATION

1 March 2013

Nazla M Luthfee
Fellow 1, ID
QSNICH

- Thai girl
- Age: 8 year-old
- Date of admission: 1st Nov 2012

- Known case of ALL, first diagnosed on 7.2.54, with complete remission on 21.3.54.
- First bone marrow relapse on 27.2.55. On monthly chemotherapy with the last one, a month before admission
- Chief complaints of:
 - Fever for 9 days

PRESENT ILLNESS (1)

- 9 days PTA, she developed fever, without chills or rigors, non-productive coughing without runny nose
- No sore throat, fast or difficult breathing, rash, bleeding from any site, abnormal movement or alteration in consciousness or activity and no history of poor oral intake

PRESENT ILLNESS (2)

- She took only acetaminophen for the fever
- 3 day PTA, she developed loose stools one episode; the stool was watery without blood or mucus
- The mother took her to a local hospital the next day

